

$$\textcircled{9} + 3 = 10 + 2 = 12$$

The number 9 is circled in green. Above the number 3, there is a green circle containing the number 1 and a grey number 2, with a grey arrow pointing from the 1 to the 3, illustrating the decomposition of 3 into 1 and 2.

www.lalibretapiruleta.com

$$\textcircled{7} + 6 = 10 + 3 = 13$$

The number 7 is circled in green. Above the number 6, there is a green circle containing the number 3, with a grey arrow pointing from it to the number 6. Another grey number 3 is positioned to the right of this arrow.

www.lalibretapiruleta.com

$$\textcircled{5} + 9 = 10 + 4 = 14$$

A diagram showing the decomposition of the number 9 into 5 and 4. A grey '5' is inside a green circle, and a grey '4' is to its right. A grey chevron points from the '5' in the circle down to the '9'.

www.lalibretapiruleta.com

$$\textcircled{8} + 4 = 10 + 2 = 12$$

A diagram illustrating the addition of 8 and 4. The number 8 is circled in green. A green circle containing the number 2 is positioned above the 4, with a grey arrow pointing from it to the 4. Another grey number 2 is placed to the right of the 4. The result 10 is also circled in green.

www.lalibretapiruleta.com